

State Vs. Lucky @ Jai Hind and others

Present: Sh. Neeraj, APP for the State.

Accused on bail with counsel.

This order of mine will dispose of an application for permanent exemption till receipt of charge sheet filed by accused. It has been submitted in the application that all are accuseds are on bail from the Court of Sessions Judge, Ludhiana. In this case challan was not presented from last two years and same as they are attended the Court proceedings regularly. Lastly, it is prayed that in the above said case may kindly be permanent exemption till receipt of charge sheet (challan) and informed the accused's through summoning when challan was presented in the interest of justice.

The Ld. APP for the State has not filed any written reply to the application, but has orally opposed the application on the ground that if permanent exemption granted to the accused, he is likely to abuse the concession of the bail.

The present application has been moved on behalf of all the applicant/accused on the ground that challan has not been presented in the present case just for the reason that the challan has not been presented in the present case, permanent exemption from appearance till receipt of challan cannot be granted to the accused persons. As such, present application is hereby dismissed. However, SHO concerned is directed to sent status report of present FIR on the next date of hearing i.e. 07.12.2019.

Jasbeer Singh

JMIC/28.11.2019

Manu Sharma

Stenographer Grade II